

The Rule of Law

PSHE lessons and units of work
Developing links with police.
Addressing issues of law during whole school assemblies as and when appropriate.
Classroom and school rules.
School council discussing new rules and support systems involving playtime, buddies etc.
School council monitors (pupils aware of who they can go to if there's a problem).
Behaviour watch systems used to analyse and support children and behaviours seen
Clear, consistent behaviour policy.
Behaviour systems in place across the school

Democracy

School council weekly with representatives from each department.
RE planning and work books.
School values.
Learning walks for behaviour.
Children have a voice on what they want to learn.
Class rules/charters displayed.
Children choose their career and learning paths, work experience, etc.
Everyone has a voice – non verbal methods of communication as well as verbal
Literacy units raising issues and debates, persuasive writing
Careers quality mark
Assemblies

Promoting positive relationships by adults working in the school.
Detailed and extensive PSHE curriculum.
RE curriculum
School council
Positive reward system to promote respect
Giving pupils responsibilities – class jobs, peer mediators,
Learning to get along during educational residential visits.
Working together in lessons, respecting each others opinions

Mutual Respect

How do we promote the Fundamental British Values in our school?

Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

RE units of work cover all religions
Assemblies sharing other faiths and beliefs
Celebrations, i.e. Chinese New Year, Diwali, Harvest etc.
Multi cultural themed weeks
Storytellers and visits from faith leaders
Units of work in literacy – stories from other cultures, stories raising issues and debates
PSHE lessons dealing with differences, diversity etc.
Inclusion quality mark
Modern Foreign Languages curriculum
Educational visits to places of religious worship
Equality policy
World Events to positively reinforce life and culture in other countries, i.e. football/rugby world cup, Olympics.

Individual Liberty

Inclusion of all children and staff
PSHE lessons and unit of work
Anti bullying week and work completed in lessons
Cyberbullying, internet safety, SRE lessons and special events weeks
Celebration assemblies recognising achievements
WOW books recognise abilities and achievements
Specialist resources in school to allow all to achieve and participate
Inclusion quality mark
Our curriculum promotes independent learning and gives pupils the opportunity to makes choices.