

Billing Brook Special Academy

A high performing special school in Northampton requires A Primary Teacher for September 2018 or earlier if possible

Billing Brook School is an outstanding, popular and ever growing special school in the Lumbertubs area of Northampton. Currently we have 227 pupils on roll aged between 4 and 18 who have a wide range of complex needs.

We are seeking a fully qualified teacher, to work in our Primary department. It is not essential that you have worked in a Special School before as we are fully committed to developing staff through training and supporting teachers in the advancement of their knowledge in special needs. All staff lead a subject across this small department – Maths is an area we are particularly interested in.

The successful candidate will have to meet the person specifications in order to be considered for the posts and will be subject to an Enhanced DBS clearance, medical clearance and satisfactory references.

The school is committed to safeguarding, safer recruitment practices and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment

Closing date: 13th March 2018

Interviews: Week beginning 19th March 2018

Salary range: MPS plus SEN allowance
